

"Rich Experience!"

"Got them thinking. Got them speaking."

"They totally enjoyed it and wanted to keep talking about it in the next class"

Educational Theater of New York is a unique and enriching experience for English language learners. Each play is adapted from literature, history, or short stories.

Following each scene a narrator asks comprehension questions with the audience, at the end of which they decide to repeat the scene or continue on to the next scene. At the end of the play, the actors reappear in costume and character, and maintaining their roles, answer questions posed by the audience about the ideas and themes of the plays.

This season we are also offering post-performance packets at each performance to all teachers. The material will include follow-up activities that guide further class discussions, and instructions for your students to submit their work to the theater if they would like to have their work published on our website.

We know both you and your students will find ETNY a stimulating and positive experience. For more information, visit our website: www.etnyarts.org.
Come enjoy the theater!

"This was great— my students can't wait for the next one!"

"Even my shyest student participated!"

"WOW!! What a great idea!"

"Most of my students had never been to a theater. This opened a whole new world for them. They feel so proud!"
